

Discussion Notes

Adventure: Wherever Jesus Goes • Jesus and Deeper Trust
September 13, 2026 • Luke Knight

Main Theme:

The point of this story is not the problem with Peter's faith. The point is that Peter and the disciples eventually saw Jesus rightly. Following that, the point was for them to remember that they could expect Jesus to bring the power and the care, should they bring the trust. Both of those points go for us too. See Jesus rightly: the Lord over creation, maker of heaven and earth, come to seek and save the sinking. Let him fill up the foreground of your vision, your trust in him growing closer to his true scale. And find yourself not swallowed up, but walking in his capacity, under his care. "Lord, if it's you, tell me to come." "Come", said Jesus.

Accessing the Sermon:

Podcast & Video: lwchurch.ca/podcasts/sermons

Full manuscript: lukeknight.ca

Engage:

- Read Matthew 14:22–33. At your initial reading, what stands out to you? Think about key themes, words, phrases, or people.
- What questions do you have about the text?

Observe:

- What is the main point of this passage? What does Matthew want us to see clearly above all details emerging?
- How does the main point of this passage tie in with the main point of Matthew, or the gospels overall, for that matter?
- What are two or three other main sub-points?
- What questions do you carry as you read the passage, or have heard the teaching?

- Have you ever heard this passage wrongly applied?
- What is more clear to you about this passage than it has been before?

Apply:

- What is your key take-away from this passage?
- Anything that you feel is important for you to understand or believe?
- What are you still wrestling with in this passage?
- Anything that God wants you to desire or do in response to this passage?
- Pray for each other.